

Engagement of interns for the Project “Understanding the Amur falcon Falco amurensis, their stop-over sites in Nagaland and their migratory routes for better conservation planning”

Agency: Wildlife Institute of India, Dehradun (www.wii.gov.in)

Location: Nagaland State

Position: Project Intern (For Indian Nationals only)

Number: 3 Nos.

Internship duration: 20th October 2016 – 20th January 2017 (3months)

Age criteria: 30 years or less as on 30th September 2016

Stipend: RS. 5,000 per month

Last date to apply: 30th September 2016

Description:

Wildlife Institute of India is seeking interns to work in a project “Understanding the Amur falcon Falco amurensis, their stop-over sites in Nagaland and their migratory routes for better conservation planning” for a short term period from 20th October 2016 to 20th January 2017. The internship period coincides with the arrival of Amur Falcons in the northeast region of India. The interns will be required to carry out field surveys for Amur falcons and monitor and map their roost sites in Nagaland. The interns will also be required to collect falcon regurgitates for prey identification, collect information on termites and document their emergence pattern in the region. In order to meet living expenses (food and accommodation) a sum of Rs. 5000/intern will be provided from the project and all local travel expenses will also be covered under the project.

Essential Qualifications:

Bachelor's/Master's degree preferably in Life Sciences/Environmental Sciences/Wildlife Science

Desired Qualifications:

1. Good Computer & Communication Skills
2. Knowledge of using Microsoft office (Excel, Word, Powerpoint)
3. Good physical fitness

Language:

Fluency in written and spoken English

To apply:

Please email your application in the prescribed format in suresh@wii.gov.in on or before 30th September 2016. A scanned copy of the Bachelor/Master's degree certificate should also be sent along with the application form. Shortlisted candidate will be selected through interview by Skype or telephone. Selected candidate would have to start work in Nagaland with effect from 20/10/2016.

Contact Person: Dr. R. Suresh Kumar

Contact Phone: 09359433837

Contact E-Mail: suresh@wii.gov.in