The extinction of the tiger in Sariska created an unprecedented crisis. To deal with this the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Rajasthan created a State Empowered Committee on Forest and Wildlife Management, which has over the last six months worked to complete its assigned task. The details of the meetings held are placed as Annexure AK-1.

Over this period of time we have met and consulted a large number of Forest Officers and Frontline Staff, Experts, Scientists, NGOs and many others in the field including Public Representatives. This list is well over a couple of hundred individuals and we thank them all and a few of them in particular.

First of all, the SEC would like to express its deep appreciation of Sh. Lakshmi Narayan Dave, Hon'ble Minister of Forests, Environment & Mines, Govt. of Rajasthan who took keen interest and provided valuable guidance and support.

We specially thank Sh. Anil Vaish, Sh. D.C. Samant, Sh. Rajiv Mehrshi, Sh. Sunil Arora, Sh. Govind Mohan, Sh. Damodar Sharma, Sh. Ajit Singh and Sh. Arijit Banerjee, officials of the Govt. of Rajasthan for their valuable support. We also thank Sh. R.N. Mehrotra for his extensive support. We thank all ranks of Forest & District Officials for their help in compiling data for this report.

The SEC expresses its deep appreciation of Sh. P.R. Sinha, Director, Wildlife Institute of India for providing a team of experts and logistic support in compiling this report. We thank Dr. A.J.T. Johnsingh, Dr. S.P. Goyal and Sh. Qamar Qureshi for providing valuable scientific inputs in the conduct of population estimation. We thank Dr. Ashish David, Sh. Rajiv Thapa, Sh. Mukesh Arora and Sh. Rajah Jayapal for their valuable help in compiling this report.

The SEC would like to place on record special appreciation and thanks to Sh. G.V. Reddy, IFS and Ex-Field Director, RTR for providing help in compiling the report. We also thank Dr. R.S. Chundawat for providing valuable inputs in planning the re-introduction of tigers in Sariska.

We also thank Sh. Shantanu Kumar, Sh. H.S. Panwar, Sh. Harsh Vardhan, Sh. V.D. Sharma, Sh. R.G. Soni, Dr. P.P. Bakre, Sh. Rajendra Singh, , Sh. Ravi Singh, Sh. P.K. Sen, Brig. Talwar, Sh. Krishna Kant, Sh. Fateh Singh Rathore and Dr. Dharmendra Khandal for their valuable suggestions.

We hope that the MoEF will play a strategic role in the state of Rajasthan in securing the future of Rajasthan's wildlife and specially its tigers. We hope that together we would be able to revive Sariska.
