

Engagement of Subject Matter Specialists

The Wildlife Institute of India, Dehra Dun invites application for engaging Subject Matter Specialists for the project entitled “Preparation of Wildlife Conservation Plan for the Impact Zone of Etalin HEP, Dibang Valley District, Arunachal Pradesh” purely on contractual basis for a flexible period of 90/180/270 days. The requirements, details of the positions and scope of the work are provided below:

S.N o	Type	No of Positions	Duration of engagement	Experience	Remuneration	Scope of Work
1	Category 1	01-03	90/180/270 days	< 1 year experience in field botany, birds/mammals/ herpetofauna/ entomofauna of the north east India or < 1 year experience in projects related to GIS and Remote Sensing	1000 per day plus accommodation and meals during the assignment period in field	Field data collection, spatial data collection, data analysis as assigned by Project Coordinator and assist the project team in preparing the wildlife conservation plan for the Impact Zone of Etalin HEP
2	Category 2	01-03	90/180/270 days	5 to 10 Years of work experience on aquatic ecosystems, ecosystem services of fresh water habitats	2000 per day plus accommodation and meals during the assignment period in field	Field data collection including multi seasonal replicates, analysis, synthesis and formulation of detailed report on aquatic habitat, aquatic species, RET species and their habitat conservation, eflow requirement for key species in the field site and suggest ameliorative measures to mitigate the probable negative impacts on wildlife due to development of HEP.
3	Category 3	01-03	180/270 days	> 15 Years of work experience on biodiversity surveys and monitoring, wildlife research, impact assessment studies	3000 per day plus accommodation and meals during the assignment period in field	Field data collection including multi seasonal replicates, analysis, synthesis and formulation of detailed report on information on status, distribution, abundance of flora and fauna of the study area, classify forests types, prepare a detailed species checklist of RET species and their habitats, migratory patterns of species, ecologically sensitive or significant areas, critical habitat features and suggest ameliorative measures to mitigate the probable negative impacts on wildlife due to development of HEP. Assistance in preparation of wildlife conservation plan.
4	Category 4	01-02	30 days	> 25 Years of experience of Landscape level biodiversity surveys, habitat assessments, functional Analysis of vegetation and forest mapping	5000 per day plus accommodation and meals during the assignment period in field	Provide technical inputs on forest mapping, wildlife habitat analysis and suggest mitigation strategies for wildlife conservation in the impact zone of the proposed HEP.

General Conditions

1. Interested candidates may send their filled in application as per the attached format downloadable from the Institute's website www.wii.gov.in with all supportive documents and 5 of their best publications by email to etalinproject@wii.gov.in with subject mentioning "Engagement of Subject Matter Specialists"
2. Shortlisted candidates will be interviewed through Skype during the 1st week of January.
3. Upon selection the candidates will be required to join the project and proceed to field in January 2018.
4. Expenditures incurred on duty travel will also be borne by the Institute.
5. The duration of engagement can be 30/90/180/270 days as indicated above for different categories. Candidates may indicate the duration of engagement of their choice. However, decision of the Institute in the context of duration would be final.
6. The last date for submission of application with all supportive documents electronically is 29 December 2017.

The Director WII, reserves the right to reject any candidature in view of incomplete information provided by the candidate or for any other reason thereof.

Nodal Officer
Consultancy Project