Subject: Request for information under the Right to Information Act, 2005

Sir/Madam,

I seek the following information under the Right to Information Act, 2005 available to any citizen of India.

1. What are the various designations (eg. Project Scientist, Research Associate, Project Fellow, Project Biologist, Junior Research Fellow etc) under which contractual research personnel are appointed for various research projects in the institute. What are the minimum essential qualifications for these positions and the corresponding fellowship given to them. How many such researchers in these various designations are engaged by the WII as of today.

2. Which are the various designations that are considered equivalent to a) Junior Research Fellow, b) Senior Research Fellow, c) Research Associate-I, d) Research Associate-II and e) Research Associate-III in the institute.

3. Is the Project Fellow position equivalent to that of a Junior Research Fellow (JRF). If no, how is the fellowship of 25,000 plus

HRA that was being given to some of these persons appointed under this designation until December 2018 exactly the same as that given to any bonafide JRF as per GoI norms.

4. Is the institute-organised National Eligibility Test (WII-NET) for entrance into its PhD program (degree awarded by Saurashtra University) considered as a national level examination.

5. Given that the Department of Science and Technology (DST), Government of India recently issued an office memorandum (SR/S9/Z-08/2018 dated January 30, 2019) with guidelines that revised the fellowship of all eligible research personnel working on R&D programmes funded by the Central government department/agencies effective from January 01, 2019, what steps has the institute taken to a) identify such eligible personnel, and b) provide them with the hiked fellowships.

6. If no step has been undertaken to identify eligible research personnel whose fellowships need to be revised as per the DST-issued office memorandum cited above, who is responsible for this administrative inertia.

7. If eligible research personnel for this revised fellowship have indeed been identified, have they been given suitable arrears along with the hike in emoluments (if and to whichever case applicable). If arrears have not been given, when can they expect such arrear amount to be credited into their respective bank accounts. What steps are available to such eligible research personnel for grievance redressal should these arrears not be credited.

8. What steps are available to research personnel eligible for a hike in emoluments/fellowship, as per the DST-issued office memorandum cited above, for grievance redressal if the hike that they deserve is still not reflected in their fellowship.

Thank you.
